ROB CURTO's FORRÓ FOR ALL

ROOTS MUSIC FROM THE NORTHEAST OF BRAZIL

Forró for All is a band dedicated to Forró, the Accordion-driven party music of Brazil, and the legacy of it's primary innovator, the great Luiz Gonzaga.

Forró For All is led by accordionist Rob Curto, originally from New York City, and widely considered Forró's main ambassador in the United States. Rob is one of the principal musicians responsible for introducing North American audiences to Northeastern Brazilian music, and was an original member of the band Forró in the Dark along with Mauro Refosco (David Byrne, Red Hot Chili Peppers) and Smokey Hormel (Beck).
